The Record of the 6th stated that George Davis, Napoleon Pollock, W. C. and Otto Reeves went to Lund with baled hay. It should have read that George Davis and Napoleon Pollock went after flour and freight, and W. C. and Otto Reeves went after a hay baler.

Last Friday night a dance and lunch was given by the Band committee, the proceeds $22 to help buy a baritone and bass horn. The committee visited each family and was successful in collecting somewhere near $50 making about $72 for the horns. The band will consist of 13 members. All the horns but the above 2 will be bought by the members. Mr. Tallstrup of the Branch Normal will send for the instruments and come down and give lessons. Our school teacher Mr. Andrews has worked the cause up and will assist all he can.

Next Saturday night the Relief Society will give an entertainment in the form of a theatre.

December 23rd the Sunday School will give an entertainment. The proceeds go to swell the Sunday School Treasury, as they are in need of funds.

DOCTOR ARRIVES TOO LATE, MOTHER DEAD

Thursday afternoon Dr. A. N. Leonard received a telegram announcing that his mother residing at Huntington, in Emery county, was dangerously ill. He immediately entered his automobile and made a fast run to Lund where he caught the early evening train for the north.

He made all connections and arrived at Huntington Sunday morning, but his mother had died at 9 o'clock the previous evening, or about an hour after he had taken the train at Lund. The doctor attended the funeral and immediately returned home in response to an urgent call, to assist in an operation.

His mother, Mrs. Emma Leonard, was 71 years of age at the time of her death and had resided at Huntington for a number of years.

Christmas in Utah

To a thrifty Mormon household came the patron saint of Yule.

He was puffing like an engine, he was laden like a Mule,

For he knew a row of stockings such as nowhere else is seen

Would be yawning there before him in the home of Elder Green.

So he shoved his pack ahead of him and started down the flue

While he muttered, "This something that I hate like smoke to do."

Then he followed with reluctance through the sooty, smudgy air,

Quickly landing where the hosiery was hung in many a pair

There were papa's socks and twenty pairs of lengthy, wifely hose;

There were socks for Eddie, Willie, for Eliphalet and Mose;

There were stockings of Matilda's, Esmeralda's and Susanne's;

There were Charley's hose and Molly's, Cora Belle's and little Dan's.

Amarillis, George, Alphonso, Peter, Joseph, Maude, Eugene,

Arthur, Lizzie, James, Amelia, Mary, Frances and Irene,

Briggie, Reed, Lucile, Clorinda, Arthusa, John, Estelle,

Mattie, Lucifer, Elfrida—from his lips their titles fell.

about the shelf there dangled other hose whose names

he not recall to save him as he watched the flames,
